No. 01 C 9098

DOCKETED

MEMORANDUM ORDER

When this Court held its April 2, 2003 conference with counsel for the parties to review their jointly-submitted proposed Final Pretrial Order ("FPTO"), it followed its consistent practice of coupling the approval of the FPTO with the establishment of a timetable for the parties' submission of any motions in limine and the responses to those motions. Each side's counsel adhered to that timetable for advancing his or its own motion in limine, but the motion submitted by defendant Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago ("District") was so plainly wanting in merit that this Court dispatched it (with one truly minor exception) via a memorandum order issued just two days later.

District's counsel then compounded the felony committed by its own groundless motion by failing to respond to the motion in limine that had been filed on behalf of plaintiff Richard Tevlin ("Tevlin"). Although an April 30 date had been fixed for such a response, District has tendered nothing either then or during the six weeks since then.

This Court can only assume from such silence that District has no objection to Tevlin's motion. Accordingly that motion (Dkt. No. 31-1) is granted in its entirety.
